DESCRIPTION

The property is a detached family home with brick elevations under a slate roof, accommodation over two floors and believed to date from the 1950's. The layout can be seen in the floorplan but of particular note is the large sitting room with three sets of double doors leading to the garden. There are further double doors to the garden from the kitchen/breakfast room and the dining room with a lovely bay window and there's a separate study, downstairs cloakroom and hall. From the hall, stairs rise to the first floor landing, off which are four bedrooms, (all with built in wardrobes), a fifth bedroom (or study) and a family bathroom. The main bedroom has its own en suite shower room. All of the main living accommodation is on the back of the house, over-looking the garden and being elevated and south-west facing, the house is lovely and bright. Outside, the house is approached by a drive with parking for a number of cars and there's an attached single garage. The main garden is to the rear and can be accessed from either side of the house. Predominantly laid to lawn with a variety of mature trees and borders, vegetable garden, the garden is an ideal spot to unwind over the long summer afternoons. There is a timber studio which would make a perfect home office being away from the main house and a useful, open-sided structure with potential for a workshop or second office. In all, the house is in a plot of approximately 0.46 acre.

DIRECTIONS

From our office in the High Street turn left at The War Memorial into College Street and then into the one way system. When the road forks, turn left onto Station Road and continue over the level crossing. At the roundabout, take the second exit onto Bell Hill and proceed over the A3 and pass the entrance to Dunhurst and Dunannie on your right. Almost immediately after, the road bends to the left and opposite the mirror, turn left. There is a thatched cottage straight ahead of you with the property on its left, behind a high hedge.
