Winkworth are proud to present a truly remarkable studio corner apartment on the top floor of Keats House.

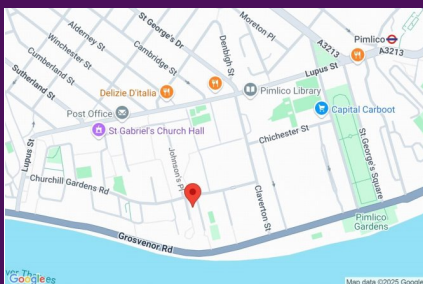

Boasting a generously sized balcony that wraps around the whole apartment with the most iconic central London landmarks being placed on display.

From the front door you enter into a bright and spacious hallway with a sizeable built in storage cupboard.

The bathroom is well presented with both bathtub and affixed shower head.

The living area is a wonderful space, full of natural light and a perfect place to both relax and entertain guests. Wooden laminate flooring throughout with a tastefully painted radiator and another space storage cupboard.

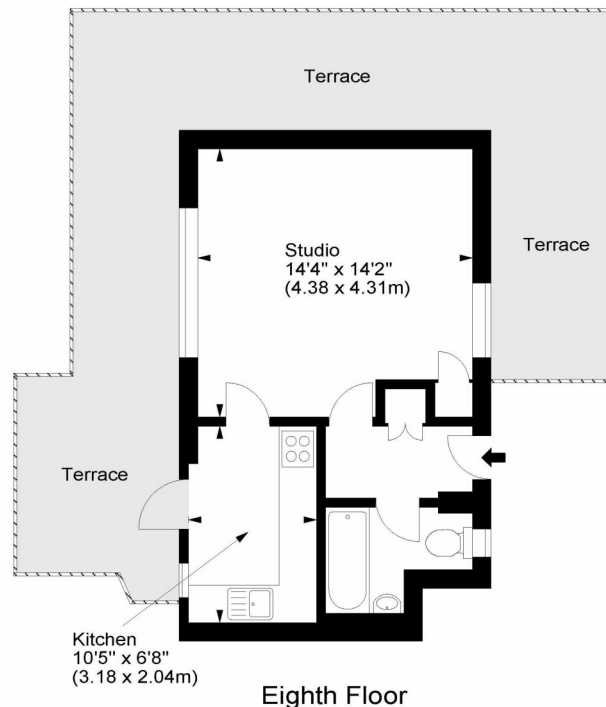

A modern, fully tiled and separate kitchen is next with lots of cupboards and counter space as well as a place for all appliances.

Winkworth wishes to inform prospective buyers and tenants that these particulars are a guide and act as information only.
