DESCRIPTION:

This beautifully maintained two-bedroom Edwardian ground-floor garden flat seamlessly blends period character with modern comfort. Occupying the lower level of an elegant Edwardian terrace, this home benefits from its own private entrance and a generous share of a well-kept garden.

Stepping inside, you are welcomed into a bright and airy reception room, enhanced by high ceilings, a feature fireplace, and a large sash window that floods the space with natural light. The separate kitchen/dining area, positioned at the rear, is thoughtfully designed with contemporary cabinetry and sleek worktops. While the appliances are freestanding, the space includes a Bosch oven and the added luxury of underfloor heating, ensuring warmth and comfort year-round. Both bedrooms are well-proportioned, with the principal bedroom offering ample storage and a peaceful retreat. The second bedroom provides versatility, ideal as a guest room, nursery, or dedicated home office. A stylish bathroom, finished to a high standard, completes the internal accommodation. A true highlight of this home is the private share of the beautifully maintained garden, directly accessible from the kitchen—offering a tranquil outdoor escape for summer dining, gardening, or simply unwinding. Perfectly positioned, Dulwich Village is within easy reach, offering a delightful selection of boutiques, eateries, and the renowned Dulwich Park. Meanwhile, Ruskin Park is just a few minutes away, providing additional green spaces and scenic walking routes. The thriving Herne Hill Village is also nearby, home to independent cafés, restaurants, and a vibrant weekly market. Excellent transport links from Herne Hill Station (Thameslink & Southeastern) ensure swift connections to Victoria, Blackfriars, and the City, making this an ideal home for professionals and families alike.
