BAILEY LANE, SALISBURY, WILTSHIRE, SP2

A superbly presented, upper floor apartment with two double bedroom/two bath accommodation within an attractive block in the much sought-after Redrow development on the edge of Wilton. Offered with vacant possession. EPC: B

This purpose-built apartment, with a pleasing outlook on two sides, is located on the second floor of an attractive block of twelve units on the edge of this modern development. The comfortable, roomy accommodation has the benefit of gas fired central heating and double glazing and includes an entrance hall with storage cupboards off leading to two double bedrooms, one with an en-suite shower room, a spacious bathroom and an open-plan living space comprising sitting room and kitchen/dining room which is well fitted with a range of units to three walls including integral appliances. The property is available with vacant possession and we urge an early viewing.

Outside there are communal wooded and grassed grounds with a children's play area. There is a bicycle store and a car park with marked, allocated parking.

LOCATION

The property is situated in the established Redrow development, located on the outskirts of the historic town of Wilton, some 3 miles from the centre of Salisbury. Wilton has an excellent general range of shops, centred around a market square with its Thursday market day. There is a selection of pubs and cafes, churches including the wonderful Italianate style C of E Parish church, doctors' and dental practices and there is regular public transport into Salisbury. The cathedral city has a much wider range of shops and a wide variety of international restaurants and pubs based around the delightful market square. Further amenities include schools and colleges, and leisure facilities such as, theatres, cinemas and a leisure centre and a selection of sports clubs. There is a growing Arts and Cultural community and the city has a mainline rail station with services to London (Waterloo) and the West Country.

DIRECTIONS

What3Words- dives.drive.clarifies

Leave Salisbury, in a north-westerly direction, along the A36 toward Wilton and at the roundabout just beyond Wilton House Garden Centre take the third exit into The Avenue. Turn second right into Bailey Lane and follow the road round the right-hand bend, proceeding to the T-junction at the bottom. Turn left and the flats will be found on the right.
