Situated on the outskirts of Colebrooke, Burghley enjoys a peaceful rural setting whilst being conveniently close to local amenities and transport links.

The property boasts generous living spaces having been extended overtime, and includes a bright and airy living room with feature fireplace, sun room with superb views across adjoining countryside and open plan kitchen / diner. The well-appointed kitchen is equipped with fitted appliances, ample storage and a breakfast area.

Burghley features multiple spacious bedrooms, each with plenty of natural light and storage. Three of the bedrooms enjoy their own stylish en-suite bathrooms with the master also benefitting from a walk-in wardrobe space.

The property is set within expansive landscaped south facing gardens, offering a serene outdoor space perfect for gardening, recreation, and al fresco dining.

Additional features include a utility room, large pantry, garage with lighting and power, car port, and a gated driveway which provides ample parking for several vehicles.

The property is nestled in an elevated yet sheltered position on the fringes of the desirable small village of Colebrooke, enjoying outstanding views over rolling agricultural land and woodland. The village of Colebrooke (1 miles to the north) has an excellent inn with restaurant. The larger village of Copplestone has a church, village hall, Post Office/general store, farm shop, primary school, garage and inn.
