A bright and well-finished one-bedroom apartment positioned on the top floor of this smart 1960s conversion, set in the vibrant heart of Streatham. Designed with modern living in mind, this home offers a sleek layout with generous ceiling height and excellent natural light throughout. The apartment opens into a central hallway with access to all rooms. The spacious reception is arranged in an open-plan layout, with warm wooden flooring and a trio of large double-glazed windows framing rooftop views across the neighbourhood. The kitchen is fitted with minimalist white cabinetry and integrated appliances, forming a clean and practical space for day-to-day cooking and entertaining. The double bedroom is similarly bright, benefiting from fitted wardrobes with mirrored sliding doors and crisp white finishes. A modern bathroom sits adjacent, featuring floor-to-ceiling neutral tiling, a full-length bath with overhead shower, and a wide mirrored wall enhancing the sense of space. The building itself is well-maintained and secure, with a refurbished communal entrance, lift access to all floors, and a location that puts the very best of Streatham on your doorstep. Residents are within immediate reach of independent cafés, bars, restaurants, gyms, and supermarkets, while green spaces including Streatham Common are also nearby.
