DESCRIPTION:

An outstanding apartment that is accessible via lift. It is located on the second floor with the reception, kitchen and bathroom at entrance-level, with stairs up to a large bedroom with en suite wet room, via a gallery room (could be used as a second bedroom). The large bedroom also provides access to a private roof terrace that faces south-west. The open space reception/kitchen with has a double-high ceiling and solid wood flooring. The reception space also features large south west facing windows which provide a clue to the building's former past as a Victorian school. The property comes complete with an allocated off-street parking space and share of freehold. Residents enjoy a porter service on weekday mornings.

The Academy is located close to the tube station at Archway (Northern Line, Zone 2) and is within a short walk of various local amenities including Marks and Spencer and Sainsbury's as well as bus routes into the City and West End. The grounds of Waterlow Park and the varied places to eat and drink in Highgate Village are half a mile away.
