DESCRIPTION:

Set within Giles Court on Tabernacle Street, this beautifully finished one-bedroom apartment offers a calm, stylish base moments from the energy of Hackney Road, Shoreditch and Old Street. Completed in 2018 and offered chain free, it is an appealing opportunity for a first-time buyer, investor or anyone seeking an easy move into one of East London's most connected neighbourhoods.

Step inside and the space opens into a generous open-plan living and kitchen area, designed for both relaxed evenings at home and easy entertaining. Sleek integrated appliances and considered lighting give the room a polished feel, while the layout leaves plenty of space to make it your own.

The bedroom is peaceful and well proportioned, with fitted storage to keep everything neatly tucked away. A modern bathroom, finished with close attention to detail, completes the interior.

The real bonus is the private balcony. Whether it is a morning coffee, an after-work pause or an evening drink, it creates a valuable extension of the living space throughout the year.

With the independent cafés, restaurants and creative buzz of Shoreditch close by, plus straightforward access to Old Street and the City, this is an ideal home for someone looking to enjoy East London living without compromising on comfort.
