

Dorset Crescent

Highfields Basingstoke RG22 5DU

Description

This large end terrace home is situated within a popular development on the western edge of Basingstoke within a short stroll of open countryside. It is also convenient for local schools and shops.

The front door leads into an entrance hall with the downstairs loo off to the right. Straight ahead is the decent size living room with the modern kitchen/diner to the rear. This has a 1½ sink unit and integrated appliances including an oven and hob, fridge/freezer, dishwasher and washing machine in addition to a water softener.

Heading upstairs, there are two good size bedrooms and a bathroom that has a white suite.

Externally, there is a large garden to the rear, which is enclosed by a combination of a high brick wall and timber fencing. There is a gate to the rear leading to the parking area, where there is one allocated parking space and two visitor spaces.

The property is freehold and there is an estate management charge, currently £140.33 for a half year from 1st April 2024.
