DESCRIPTION:

Set in Siege House on Sidney Street, this one bedroom apartment offers bright and well-balanced accommodation, with both the living room and bedroom enjoying a desirable south-facing aspect, providing excellent natural light throughout the day along with open views from its elevated position. The generous internal space is ideally configured for modern city living, making the property an excellent first-time purchase, pied-à-terre, or a strong buy-to-let investment.

Siege House is superbly located, placing the City of London within close proximity while also benefiting from easy access to the vibrant amenities of Shoreditch. Transport links are outstanding, with the Elizabeth Line nearby, offering fast and convenient connections across London and beyond.

The surrounding area is rich in restaurants, cafés, bars and cultural attractions, with Shoreditch, Spitalfields and the City all within easy reach. This combination of location, connectivity and lifestyle appeal underpins the property's strong owner-occupier and rental demand.

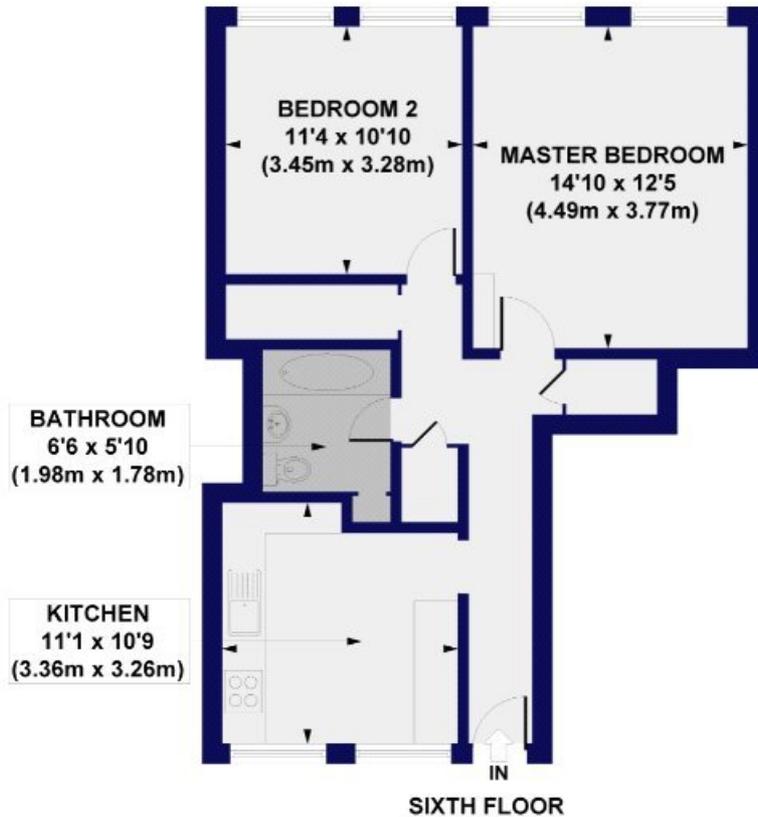

Offered chain free, this apartment represents an excellent opportunity to acquire a bright, well-located London home with long-term appeal and investment potential.
