Found on the second floor, the accommodation comprises; a broad reception/dining room (19' 2 x 14' 10 max) opening to a private balcony, creating an easy flow for everyday living and entertaining. The separate kitchen is neatly designed with generous work surfaces and a gas hob, while double glazing (with additional secondary glazing to select windows) and gas central heating ensure year-round comfort. The apartment was fully rewired and re-plumbed in 2010 for peace of mind.

There are three genuine double bedrooms: the principal measures 15' 1 x 10' 10; the second enjoys a lovely bay; and the third is fitted with bespoke wardrobes plus a clever fold-down double bed and fold-out desk, ideal as a guest room/home office without sacrificing floor space. A classic family bathroom sits off the long hallway (22' 3), with useful built-in storage throughout. In all, the apartment is one of the larger footprints within the development and extends to approx. 952 sq.ft (88.4 sq.m).

Residents benefit from landscaped communal gardens and plentiful unallocated parking within the development, with garages en-bloc occasionally available to rent or buy. The property is sold with a share of freehold.

A rare combination of scale, heritage and thoughtful design, with a proper third bedroom that works brilliantly as an office or guest suite. Immediate viewing is a must.
