This charming Grade II listed cottage is situated in a sought-after location and was even featured on 'Homes Under The Hammer'! Internally, the cottage is full of character and provides accommodation set over three floors. The property has been sympathetically renovated, and retains many original features, while offering modern comforts. The property is currently let through Airbnb, providing a solid income, making it an ideal home or investment opportunity.

The living room boasts a stone fireplace with a wood burner, creating a warm and welcoming space. Exposed timber beams and recessed shelving add to the cottage's charm. The room flows into a modern kitchen with solid oak worktops, integrated appliances.

Upstairs, the double bedroom features built-in storage, and the spacious bathroom includes a bath, separate shower cubicle, WC, and basin. A further staircase leads to the loft room, with exposed A-frame timbers, and eaves storage.

Outside, there's access to a shared rear courtyard. The property benefits from mains gas central heating and a wood burner in the living room.

Situated in a convenient town location, this lovely cottage offers both character and comfort, making it a perfect choice for a homeowner or investor.
