DESCRIPTION:

Beyond the communal courtyard, this property occupies the first and second floor of this early Victorian era building.

The first floor of the property comprises a bright reception room finished with an original fireplace, Crittall style windows and overlooking the treeline Barbault Road. To the side, one finds a separate eat-in kitchen, large double bedroom to the rear and a family bathroom.

On the second floor, you are greeted with two further airy double bedrooms provided with a pair of centre pivot windows. One of these bedrooms offers significant eaves storage and further eaves storage is available on an additional space on the landing.

As well as having built this property, British master builder Thomas Cubitt (25 February 1788 – 20 December 1855) is renowned for having worked on the construction of many of London's historic squares and streets, particularly in Belgravia, Pimlico, and Bloomsbury.

Albion Road is located only moments away from the many bars, restaurants and coffee houses of Stoke Newington Church Street, Newington Green and trendy Dalston. Transport links include, Canonbury Station (Overground), Dalston Kingsland & Junction Stations (Overground) and a variety of bus routes into The City and West End.

The area offers a range of outstanding and good rated primary, secondary schools and nurseries. For recreation, the property is very close to Clissold Park, a large green space with a children's playground, tennis courts, paddling pool, skate park, ponds, animal enclosures and Clissold House café. The Clissold Leisure Centre is moments away and Abney Park, the West Reservoir, Castle Climbing Centre and Woodberry Wetlands are also a short distance away.
