The development has gated access, gated parking, a lift, the benefit of an onsite porter and communal gardens.

The property comprises entrance hall, open plan living room/kitchen/diner, master bedroom with en-suite bathroom and walk in shower, second spacious double bedroom and family bathroom with white three-piece suite. The huge living area is great for entertaining and provides access to the private outside space. The conversion is situated on the third and fourth floors and offers an abundance of natural light due to the floor to ceiling west facing windows. It also boasts high ceilings and wooden flooring throughout. The apartment has been very well maintained by the current owner and provides a fine example of open plan and minimalistic living.

Sunlight Square was originally the site of the Sunlight Laundry, part of Lever Brothers' innovative approach to public health through industrial laundry services. The advent of home washing machines led to the laundry's closure. Fortunately, the building's aesthetically pleasing and functional design, featuring large windows and high ceilings intended to improve ventilation and working conditions, made it ideal for conversion into large, open-plan, loft-style apartments, which occurred in the 1990s.

Sunlight Square is in an enviable location being a stone's throw from Whitechapel Station (Crossrail, District, Hammersmith & City, East London lines). You are also within a short distance to Aldgate, Aldgate East and Liverpool Street underground stations and Shadwell DLR and Cambridge Heath stations, providing unrivalled access across the City and beyond. In addition, you have a vast range of local amenities on your doorstep including Brick Lane, Spitalfields and Whitechapel markets with an abundance of boutique shops, cafes, bars and restaurants, as well as a Sainsbury's Superstore.
