Nestled in the welcoming neighbourhood of Coniston Gardens, this charming five bedroom recently extended residence has been cherished through generations of its family. Neutrally decorated throughout, the property presents a gorgeous canvas for a family to add their personal touch. The ground floor greets you with the choice of a cosy lounge as well as a charming living room opening out into a classic kitchen. A substantial proportion of the house is adorned with the property's well maintained original pine flooring, adding a touch of character. On the two upper levels you'll discover three double and two single bedrooms complimented by a well-appointed family bathroom and a modern shower room. Externally, the garden provides a lovely, serene retreat complete with a great quality outbuilding ideal for use as a home office or gym, whilst the front driveway allows parking for two cars. An internal viewing is highly advised to discover
