DESCRIPTION:

This spacious and bright character property is a good example of the Ravenscroft design. This property has recently been refurbished inside and further work to the outside. It offers three good reception rooms, study, sitting room and dining room. These rooms are bright with good sized windows and two rooms give access out onto the rear southerly garden. Exposed beams and fireplace with brick hearth and surround flanked by cupboards. The kitchen overlooking the front, with excellent range of wall and base units, along with a user friendly opening access to the dining room.

The hallway leads to a dog leg staircase, which has a beautiful large character window ensuring plenty of natural light enters this area. Only one bedroom faces the front of the property, the other three bedrooms face the south rear garden. They are bright and airy and of a good size with the traditional fireplaces.

Outside

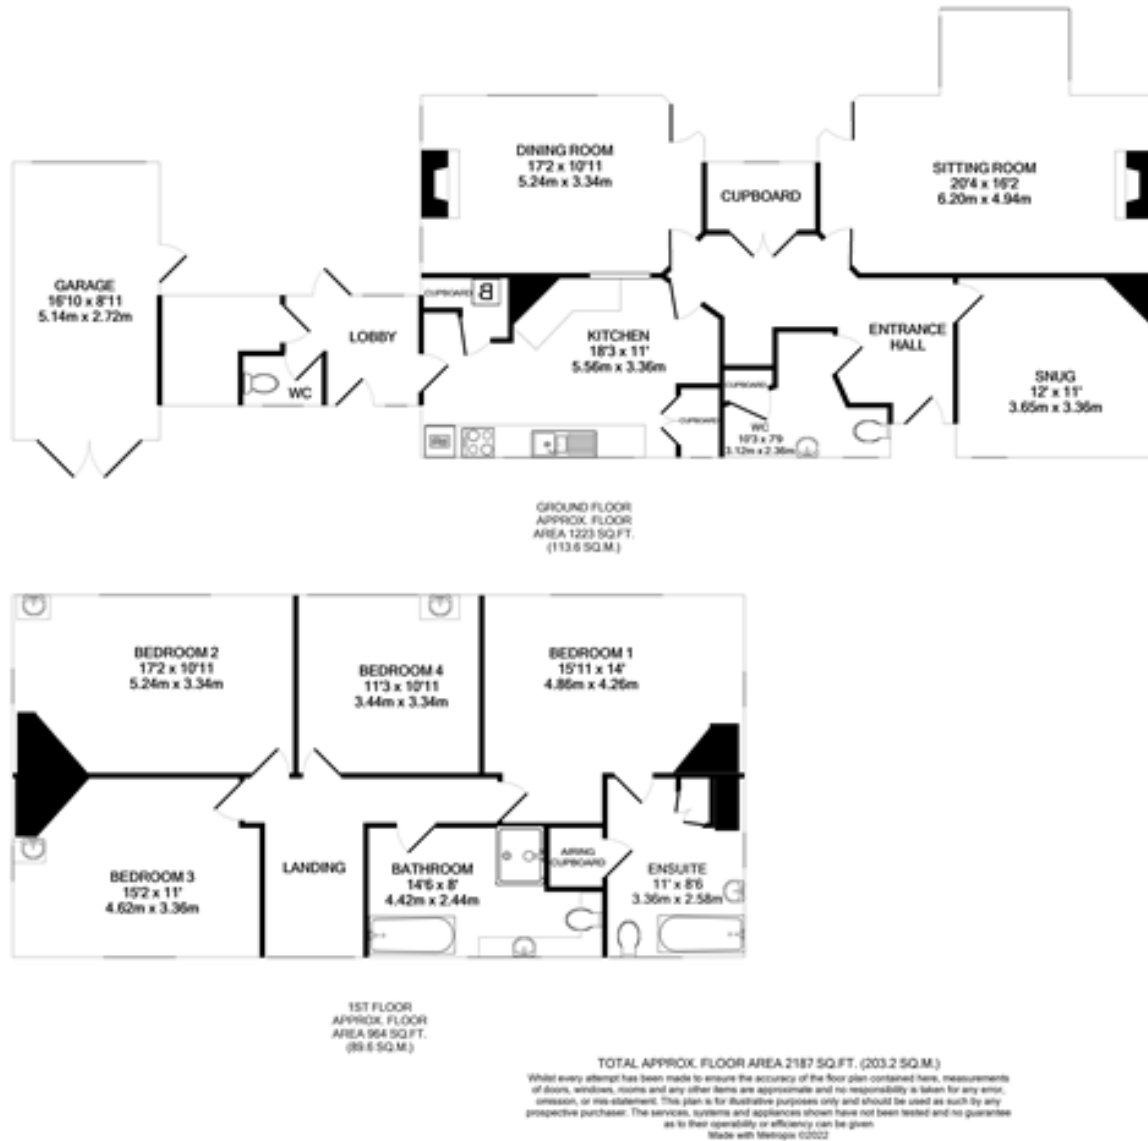

To the front of the property there is a single garage as well as parking for a few cars. There is a picket fencing with a pedestrian gate leading via a footpath to the front door, this permits access from the parking area.

The large south facing rear garden is a particular feature of the property, bordered by trees and planted with mature shrubs.

Directions:

From the office head up Church Hill, turn right onto the Lymington road. Continue along this road and Manor Road will be found on the left. Turn and follow until you reach number 31 - last property on the left side.

This floorplan is for illustration purposes only and is not to scale. The position and size of doors, windows, appliances and other features are approximate.
